THE PRIMARY SET FOR MARCH 13TH.

The primary election in the county of Kauai (as well as Maui and Hawaii) has been definitely set for Saturday, March 13. This will be for the nomination of party candidates for supervisors, sheriff, clerk, treasurer, auditor and attorney.

The election in the various precincts will be held between the hours of 8 a. m. and 5 p. m.

On the island of Kauai each political party will be privileged to select nominees for supervisor as follows: One each from the districts of Waimea, Koloa, Lihue, Kawaihau and Hanalei.

It is generally understood that all the Kauai supervisors will run again, with the exception of Francis Gay, of the Waimea district. Rumors have it that Th. Brandt, B. D. Baldwin and G. F. Rankin will be urged to compete in the primary for the honor over there.

Treasurer Morgan will almost without doubt be opposed in the primary by A. G. Kaufman. It is stated that County Auditor Maser may also have an opponent. So far as known at present there will be no opposition to Sheriff Rice and Clerk Kamekaha, although it is too early in the campaign to tell definitely about it.

EXCURSION PARTY COMING TO KAUAI

About 200 People To Arrive At Nawiliwili February 12
For Tour

The Trail And Mountain Club, of Honolulu, which recently carried out a successful tour and climb to the top of Haleakala, is coming to Kauai, 20C strong.

They have chartered the big steamer Kilauea and will arrive at Nawiliwili on the morning of Saturday, February 12. From Nawiliwili and Lihue they will "spread out", as they may choose, toward Waimea and Hanalei. If the roads and weather are good, many will doubtless choose to go to the Hanalei side; if not, all will probably take the Waimea route.

Alexander Hume Ford, editor of the Mid-Pacific Magazine and practical booster, is organizing the party. In a letter to the editor of THE GARDEN ISLAND, received yesterday morning, he says, among other things:

You have probably seen by the papers that our trip through Haleakala was a tremendous success. We got the one-hundred-and-one through alive, and even those who nearly died are most eager to try it over again.

We have chartered the "Kilauea" to take two hundred of us to the Garden Island, leaving Honolulu February 12th, and I believe we will make a success of it. We wish to land first at Lihue.

Then we will go to Waimea, or to Hanalei, and back to Lihue, arriving there about five o'clock in the afternoon.

By the way, if we put this through, I think it is up to us to invite the members of your Chamber of Commerce to join us on the trip around your Garden Island as our guests. A lot of our people will get off at Lihue, and there will be plenty of room, and perhaps some of your Kauai people haven't seen the most beautiful part of the island from the sea.

Now, we don't want any entertaining or anything free. I don't want my people trained that way. Members of the Trail And Mountain Club must pay for what they get. If you can lend us any good guides or hikers who want to go hiking with us for the sport of it, we want them. I shall take tents and cooking utensils, etc., for those who wish to visit the canyons, and we will all come back to Honolulu enthusiastic boosters. We will have plenty of expert photographers along, and will offer prizes for those who get the best pictures, and for those who write the best descriptions.

I do wish I knew Kauai as well as I do the other islands, and now that I have my headquarters in the Promotion Committee rooms here, and an office force working, not under me, but with me, I am going to do all I can to get Kauai in the circle of the tourist.

emeyer; Second Grade Work, Mrs. Yanagihara; Talk, Mrs. Cliff.

11.00 to 11.15 Recess.
11.15 to 12.00 Discussion of the Course of Study led by Principals.

12.00 to 1.00 Basket Lunch.

AFTERNOON SESSION.
Addresses by School Commissioner Th. Brandt, Hon Charles A. Rice, Hon. John A. Coney, H. D. Wishard, Chairman Board of Supervisors; Inspector General, George S. Raymond.

KEKAHA LOSES A VALUED CITIZEN

Gustav Hansen, assistant manager of Kekaha Sugar Company, died at about 5:10 o'clock yesterday morning, his ailment being what is known as pernicious anemia, or deficiency of blood corpuscles; a disease which almost invariably proves fatal within two years, and of which he had suffered more than a year.

The funeral will take place this afternoon, interment being in the cemetery of the foreign church at Waimea. A son of the deceased, in school in Honolulu, arrived this morning to attend the obsequies.

Deceased is survived by a widow and four children.

Mr. Hansen was a native of Hamburg, Germany, and was in his 42nd year. He arrived in the Islands in 1898, coming here from San Francisco, where he had previously been employed.

Mr. Hansen was a man of very quiet, unassuming manner, and was highly esteemed by all fortunate enough to know him. The Waimea-Kekaha region loses a good citizen.

HUI ALOHA KOKUA MANAWALEA MEETS

Hui Aloha Kokua Manawalea is the name of a benevolent society founded here in Lihue some thirteen or fourteen years ago by Mrs. Wm. Hyde Rice, and most of the members are Hawaiian women. As the name signifies, these women are joined together for a service of love-for mutual encouragement, to help each other to greater happiness and peace and kindness, and to take the same things into the lives of those around them, and comfort and help to any who might need it worthily. To love, to help, to serve, has been the keynote of the society, and it must have been vital, to have lived and worked all these years.

Out of this mother society, four others sprang. One had to disband owing to members moving away, but three are flourishing, one each at Kapaa, Koolau and Hanalei.

The Lihue Society thought it would be good to have a meeting of the entire society, for mutual encouragement and uplift. So, Jan. 8 was set for all to meet at the old Hawaiian church at Lihue, and the other societies were invited to come for a meeting and feast. The exercises began at eleven o'clock; the minutes and reports were read, addresses presented by visiting presidents and several songs given. There was a very generous collection taken, and then Mrs. Rice, who has been the society president all these years, closed the meeting with some very apt words of welcome, love, hope and encouragement. On a lanai close by the church, two long tables were set, and looked very attractive with a covering of ferns and decorations of flowers and fruits. About one hundred sat down and enjoyed the many Hawaiian delicacies with which the tables were loaded.

When the feast was over, they all gathered in groups under the trees, where ice cream was served in cornucopias; and had a pleasant hour visiting. Sweet singers from Hanalei delighted the company with several songs. So many

WAIPOULI ROAD NEARER THAN EVER

Vice President Carl Hagens, of Hackfield & Company; W. C. Parke, secretary, and F. E. Thompson, attorney, of Lihue Plantation Company, returned to Honolulu Saturday night after looking thoroughly over the situation in regard to the proposed railway from Nawiliwili to the Waipouli homestead tract and neighborhood.

The result of the visit of these officials, together with prior conferences, is that the Legislature, at its coming session, will be asked for temporary franchise road. It will thereafter be necessary for a permanent franchise to be procured, which will have to be approved by Congress. With a temporary franchise, secured, however, the permanent right will be so certain that operations will probably begin at once.

Cane contracts have been signed by about thirty of the homesteaders in the district above Kapaa, with Lihue mill, conditioned upon the satisfactory completion of the railway project.

people all in white, under the trees talking, laughing, moving about, made a very interesting sight; and such good will and happiness in faces that caused one to think that they were really imbued with their Hui Aloha.

DROWNED OFF THE WAINIHA LANDING

Ah Tuck, a rice planter of Wainiha, fell from the landing at Wainiha bay about 7 o'clock Thursday evening and was drowned.

The body was found Saturday afternoon. This morning the coroner's jury completed its investigation and returned a verdict of accidental drowning.

The Chinaman, accompanied by another man and a boy, went down to the landing to fish for crabs. Ah Tuck was engaged in drawing his net in for the third time when he fell overboard.

The small Hawaiian boy, aged 13, bravely plunged in after the struggling man, caught hold of him and tried to drag him out, but the Chinaman gripped the boy in such a way that both were in danger of drowning. The man on shore called to the boy to break away, which he succeeded in doing, and just in time, too, for he was almost exhausted when he reached the landing again.

Funeral Today

The funeral of the late Mr. Gustav Hansen is taking place in Waimea at 10 o'clock this morning. Quite a large number of people from points as far away as Lihue are in attendance.
